www.readitspreadit.com

This is a Read it, Spread it book. If you've received this book, it's because the person who last read it found it inspiring, and they want to share that inspiration with you! You should find a message from that person somewhere near the front of the book, and if they weren't the first person to read it, there may be some other messages of inspiration from its previous readers.

To continue to spread this inspirational book, please add your details to the list of readers inside the back cover, and once you've finished reading it, if you feel inspired, think of someone else you'd like to share your inspiration with, find the first available space in the front of the book, and write them a message, expressing what this book means to you, and why you want to share it with them. Give them the book, and your work is done!

No more space?
If this book is absolutely packed with inspirational messages, and you can't find anywhere to write another one, then the book's life purpose is fulfilled! If the first reader provided a postal address, consider sending the book back to them, so that they can see how many people they have inspired with this book. Then go and buy another copy and continue to spread the inspiration!

Spread your own books
To start your own Read it, Spread it book, go to www.readitspreadit.com and print out the readers list and these instructions. Stick the readers list inside the back cover and add your details, including your postal address so the book can be returned to you. Stick the instructions inside the front cover and start spreading the love!

Feedback
Your inspirational messages are what makes Read it, Spread it work. If you're inspired by the project, please visit www.readitspreadit.com, and tell everyone about your Read it, Spread it experience.

Read it, Spread it
Readers list

Name	Date	Location
		Address:

www.readitspreadit.com

This is a Read it, Spread it book. If you've received this book, it's because the person who last read it found it inspiring, and they want to share that inspiration with you! You should find a message from that person somewhere near the front of the book, and if they weren't the first person to read it, there may be some other messages of inspiration from its previous readers.

To continue to spread this inspirational book, please add your details to the list of readers inside the back cover, and once you've finished reading it, if you feel inspired, think of someone else you'd like to share your inspiration with, find the first available space in the front of the book, and write them a message, expressing what this book means to you, and why you want to share it with them. Give them the book, and your work is done!

No more space?
If this book is absolutely packed with inspirational messages, and you can't find anywhere to write another one, then the book's life purpose is fulfilled! If the first reader provided a postal address, consider sending the book back to them, so that they can see how many people they have inspired with this book. Then go and buy another copy and continue to spread the inspiration!

Spread your own books
To start your own Read it, Spread it book, go to www.readitspreadit.com and print out the readers list and these instructions. Stick the readers list inside the back cover and add your details, including your postal address so the book can be returned to you. Stick the instructions inside the front cover and start spreading the love!

Feedback
Your inspirational messages are what makes Read it, Spread it work. If you're inspired by the project, please visit www.readitspreadit.com, and tell everyone about your Read it, Spread it experience.

Read it, Spread it
Readers list

Name	Date	Location
		Address: